Princeton, New Jersey

Dear George:

I just received your good letter of May 6, 1957.

While my authority in the matter of the Lansing papers is somewhat nebulous, I willingly give my approval, for what it may be worth, for your use of the quotations and references thereto as requested. I am glad that the papers have been of help to you and I am quite sure no one will dispute your right to use them.

Faithfully yours,
